A PROPHETIC SPEECH.

"Let the carpet-bagger, expelled finally from every state in the American union with the brand of disgrace stamped upon his brow, lift up his head once more and turn his face toward the setting sun. Utah beckons him to a new field of pillage and fresh pastures of pilfering. Let him pack his grip-sack and start. The Mormons have no friends and no one will come forward to defend or protect their rights. A returning bag, from whose decisions there is no appeal, sent out from the American Congress baptized with the spirit of persecution and intolerance, will enter Utah to trample beneath their feet the rights of the people of that far-off and ill-fated land. Mr. Speaker, I would not place a dog under the dominion of a set of carpet-baggers re-enforced by a returning board, unless I meant to have him robbed of his bone. A more grinding tyranny, a more absolute despotism was never established over any people."—Hon. John F. House, of Tennessee, in the House of Representatives, April 18, 1882.

GOVERNOR THOMAS' POSITION.

"Some Federal agency should be authorized to appoint the following county officers: Selectmen, clerks, recorders, superintendents of district schools and assessors."—Arthur L. Thomas.

THE PEOPLE'S POSITION.

"The basis of free government is the right of the people to govern themselves."—People's Party "Declaration of Principles."

COLONIZATION.

NEPHI, October 28, 1880.

O. W. POWERS, Esq.,
DEAR SIR:—The bearer of this wants to vote, look after for him.
JOHN WITBECK.

TONY, LEVON, JUBA CO., UTAH.

BULLDOZING WILL FAIL.

Judge POWERS may know how to manage and direct the rabble in a political campaign, but it is apparent that he takes a wrong measurement of a good many Liberals in this city. The tag, rag and bobtail ticket which the ward convention made up is not as satisfactory to the decent element of the party. On the contrary it is extremely unsatisfactory, and it is openly talked by not a few that they will scratch the objectionable names, and several prominent Liberals have said they will vote the People's ticket as a protest against POWERS' rule and as a protection for their property. The putting of a clean name or two on the ticket as nominees for the general offices did not purify the foul aggregation, nor did it deceive the intelligent men and property-owners. They realize that the council would be the ruling power, the mayor being a helpless servant, doing only as he was bid. The most forceful and cleanest man in Christendom would be powerless with such a council as has been nominated, and if he were forceful and clean he would soon step down and out from a place where he would be merely a figurehead and an ugly ome to that.

After the general convention the discontent went on and it continues; it even grows and becomes more widespread, some whose loyalty to the Liberal party has never been doubted, now letting it be known that they will scratch the objectionable names even if they vote the ticket. Chairman POWERS is alarmed at the disaffection, and at a gathering of the gang on Wednesday employed the bulldozing tactics for which he has something of a reputation. Among other things he said:

"There is a single man training in our midst who hesitates to support the ticket let him rise and show himself that he may be marched by the Zouaves, the band or the drum corps into the enemy's ranks to the tune of the boogie's March. The man who refuses to stand by the ticket should have his name engraved on the south side of the Mormon temple for the benefit of posterity."

There was a time when that sort of thing would have been successful here, but we apprehend that the time has gone and forever, when blackguardism and threats can force men into supporting that which is distasteful to them. It wasn't so very long when our morning contemporary could crack the last over the rank and file of the Liberals, and there would be a general and humble compliance with its orders. It can snap and storm and threaten now without alarming a single manly Liberal, for only the scrubs stand in awe of it. The fellow POWERS will learn that he has overreached the mark this time; that the tactics of the bulldozer will not be effective with men who have property and reputations to protect. A Liberal said to this writer yesterday, "Judge POWERS may send around his Zouaves and drum corps and escort me, for I will not vote the Liberal ticket, and on this occasion will vote with the People in self-defense." There are others, and many of them, who are thinking and talking in this strain, and on election day they will defy POWERS and the hoodlum gang to deter them from voting for good and honest government. In plain words there is no longer terror in the epithet of "Jack Mormon."

REPRESENTATIVE STEWART, of Vermont, disclaims responsibility for BARKER's bill to disfranchise Mormons without accusation or a hearing, and professes to not be in sympathy with its provisions. In the light of his disclaimer we are forced to believe the gentleman. But we cannot refrain from asking if it were possible for the Representative to be placed in a similar attitude of apology with reference to any other community? In other words, would Governor STEWART present a bill sent to him which proposed to outlaw Methodists, Quakers, or any other religiousists? The HERALD imagines that the gentleman is too careful of his reputation and too solicitous of his popularity to ever make the mistake of offering a bill which has for its object the disfranchisement, without cause or reason, of any other than Mormons.

DUBOIS WEAKENS.

THE HERALD has earnestly endeavored to convince the people of Idaho that they were going about the business of securing a state government the wrong way. We have told them many times that before they could be admitted to the union they must have their plea for statehood upon something more convincing and satisfactory than intense hatred of Mormons. To denounce the Saints, calling them all sorts of vile names and recklessly lying about them, may be considered good politics in an election campaign, and it may serve to help sell newspapers to a certain class, but it doesn't present conclusive evidence of ability to maintain a state government republican in form and just in its administration. We have also insisted to our Idaho friends that their Delegate to Congress, Mr. FRED DUBOIS, was doing the statehood cause more harm than good. He is a madman when it comes to anything relating to the Mormons or their religion. He is going through life on the assumption that the chief purpose for which he came upon earth was to make war against the Saints, and very nearly everything he does is done upon that theory or presumption. He has conducted the statehood campaign as if all he thought was necessary when asked why Idaho should be admitted was to reply, "because we hate the Mormons."

Some of the Idaho people have believed THE HERALD and wanted to act upon its advice; but these have not had control of the political machine. They have been frowned upon by the bosses, and been forced into silence. It is apprehended that one of these days the majority will agree with THE HERALD, and going about the statehood matter with common sense for the rule may carry the territory into the union. Even DUBOIS, blind and fanatical as he is, is learning that his cause is hopeless so long as it is conducted on the lines he has been following. Our Washington correspondent, in Thursday's HERALD, informs us that DUBOIS has been to Delegate CAINE with a request that the Mormons be not again referred to in arguments before the committee on territories. The time has now dropped the Mormons out of the case was last summer in the Boise convention. If it had been done there, and a good constitution formed which was consistent with the fundamental law of the republic, and with American ideas, and which recognized the rights of all citizens, there would have been comparatively little trouble in getting Idaho into the union this winter. This Congress is favorably disposed towards the territories and would like to abolish the ugly territorial system. But when it transpired that DUBOIS and associates based their claim for statehood almost solely on the ground of their intense hatred of the Mormons, Congressmen virtually said that it would be well enough to let Idaho wait awhile.

THE HERALD has evidence that the good people of our northern neighbor are gradually coming around and we have hope that in time they will be guided by wisdom and common sense rather than by fanaticism and senseless hate; by their friends instead of by the scrub and corrupt politicians. When they do escape from the influence of the reckless, unwise fellows like DUBOIS, it will not be a difficult matter to get the territory into the union, and nobody will do better work to that end than THE HERALD.

DR. A. S. CONDOX, of Ogden, has been nominated for supervisor of the census for the district of Utah. THE HERALD's knowledge of the gentleman is such that we believe the selection is a wise one and that the work will be well and satisfactorily done.

A PAINFUL DUTY.

Our unesteemed morning contemporary fairly frothed at the mouth on Thursday, ever so pertinent questions which THE HERALD propounded to Mr. GEORGE M. SCOTT, the Liberal candidate for mayor, and the two or three other presumably clean men on the ticket. THE HERALD asked if these men, who profess honesty and respectability, would accept offices obtained by fraud. We said there had been crookedness in the registration; that Liberals who had no right to vote, had been listed; that men had sworn falsely in order to get their names on the list and vote the Liberal ticket. We know that Mr. SCOTT and the two or three decent men with whom he is associated, would not knowingly be the recipients of stolen goods, and we asked if it would be less a crime to get into office by votes known to be illegal.

At these queries the Tribune flies into a rage, denies that there has been any fraud on the part of the Liberals, and repeats its stale charge that the People have been engaged in systematic colonization. As to this latter allegation, THE HERALD has simply to say, as it has said many times during the campaign, that if any man not entitled under the law to vote, shall either vote or attempt to vote the People's ticket, we hope he will be prosecuted, convicted and punished, as the law provides. We will say as we have always said, that the People's party can better afford to lose the control of the city than it can afford to retain control by even the semblance of fraud.

But to the Tribune's denial of illegal registration on the part of the Liberals. Before the close of the campaign sufficient evidence will be presented to sicken every decent member of the party, and unless we are mistaken in the character of the man, Mr. GEORGE M. SCOTT will retire from the ticket in disgust, ashamed that his name has been associated with the most corrupt gang that ever figured in local politics. This morning we will simply permit the Tribune to supply the evidence of its own recklessness of assertion and its party's fraud. On the local page of the same issue in which the editor raves his defense of Liberal honesty we find this item:

ERNEST E. WARNER, aged thirty-two, tuba player in the Liberal band, died at 10 o'clock last evening, from acute pneumonia, at the residence of his brother-in-law, A. R. DENGE, 621 South West Temple street, where the funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. to-day. Mr. WARNER came to Utah from Colorado three months ago to be associated in business with Mr. DENGE, and joined the band shortly after its organization. He was a fine musician, a genial, large-hearted man, and was much respected by his associates and friends, who will feel his loss keenly.

It will be observed that the deceased "came to Utah from Colorado three months ago," and at once became an active Liberal. If the Tribune editor will take the trouble to look over the registration list for the Second precinct, he will find this name and address: "WARNER, ERNEST F., 621 S. West Temple."

If the editor will then read the election law he will learn that before he could legally have gotten his name on the registration list, Mr. WARNER must have sworn and subscribed an oath which began: "I, ERNEST F. WARNER, being duly sworn, depose and say that I am over twenty-one years of age, and have resided in the territory of Utah for six months, and in the precinct one month next preceding the date hereof."

Then the editor may go around to the clerk of the Utah commission and find the name of Mr. WARNER attached to the oath. The registration closed nearly a month ago, or two months after the arrival of the deceased in this territory, and as Mr. WARNER was a peculiarly earnest and enthusiastic Liberal it is probable that he was among those early registrars, it may be taking the oath that he had been here six months, six weeks or less after his arrival.

We trust it will not be regarded as impertinent to ask the Tribune if there were no fraud or crookedness in this case, THE HERALD does not make this exposure with the view of attacking the dead, but merely to supply the proof to convict its party of registration frauds that have been practiced, and itself of trying to shield and protect by arrant lying those guilty of the crookedness. As for poor WARNER, by dying he has probably escaped a prosecution for perjury and illegal voting. There are hundreds of other Liberals whose names are as irregularly on the list as his, and they might as well understand first as last that every one of them who attempts to vote will run the risk of serving a term in the jail. The brazen lying of the Tribune and the promises of the Liberal managers will not save them.

THE CULLEN hotel is given as the residence of forty-one men whose names appear on the registration list. Mine Host EWING should present a bill to Registrar CLUTE for the board and lodging of the gentlemen who have been located at the hotel but who fail to show up on the office register.

Oh, What a Conger! The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption! Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold last year. It cures coughs and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. C. Smith & Co.
